

Village of Unity, Wisconsin

The Unity is a village in Clark and Marathon counties in Wisconsin and is part of the Wausau, Wisconsin Metropolitan Statistical Area. #

Unity began in 1872 with the coming of railroad and lumbering, but today the community's economy rests heavily upon agriculture. It was lumber that brought D. J. Spaulding here in 1873, a year after the Wisconsin Central Railroad (now the Soo Line) came into the area. #

Unity is considered a Small Town with a population of 350 + residents. Some of the largest industries in Unity are professional services and dairy farms.
