

“A proud growing community”

Located in one of nature's loveliest spots, Central Wisconsin, Colby is good living at its best. From work to play, all types of activities are close at hand. Local groups include the Lions Club, VFW and Auxiliary, and the ShowCase Players, a community theatre group.

Within the city, there are many fun recreational areas for tennis, softball, basketball, sand volleyball, horseshoes and outdoor winter sports.

Colby is the birthplace of Colby cheese. A historical marker is located downtown commemorating Joseph Steinwand for the development of Colby cheese in the 1880s.

Colby is only a stone's throw away from great fishing, hunting, camping, skiing and snowmobile trails.
