“A small town where memories are made”

One of Clark Counties great towns, offering an auction house, dance studio, hardware store, bank, post office, salon, pubs & restaurants, a bakery, multiple churches, educational opportunities and much more!

LOGGING AND PIONEER FARMING BROUGHT SETTLERS TO THE AREA THAT IS NOW WELL KNOWN FOR ITS PRODUCTIVE LAND USE AND DAIRY HERITAGE, AND SERVE AS A HUB OF A LARGE AGRICULTURAL AREA.

The City is best known for its annual August Corn Fest. It features great bands, carnival rides, Spanky's 5 and 10K run/walk, corn on the cob, evening truck and tractor pull, pedal tractor pulls, a Sunday parade down Main Street and more. September enjoy a classic car, motorcycle and tractor show.

Loyal has three City parks. The West Side Community Park which has two baseball fields, a small golf course, volleyball court, disc golf, sheltered pavilion for family outings. The park is also home to the Veterans Memorial honoring its war veterans and coming soon to this park is the Loyal Splash Pad.
