

“An ever growing community with all the comforts of a large city”

Located in West Central Wisconsin at the intersection of U.S. State Hwy 10 and State Hwy 73 is a bustling community with deep character and rich history. Bordered by the Black River and surrounded by rolling wooded hills, the city provides amenities often reserved for larger communities, yet maintains the appeal of a rural lifestyle.

Residents of Neillsville enjoy high quality healthcare, excellent education, a variety of retail shopping choices, numerous community events, endless indoor and outdoor recreational opportunities and the comforts and conveniences of small town life, including affordable housing, friendly people, and a low crime rate.

Opportunities abound in Neillsville for new businesses, families, and those seeking an incredible quality of life in a community known for its friendly atmosphere and beautiful scenery.
