

Stanley... Live, Work & Play Well!

Located halfway between Green Bay and Minneapolis along Highway 29 in west central Wisconsin, Stanley is a warm-hearted community of 3,849 which spans between Chippewa and Clark Counties.

It offers a fine balance of businesses, products, services, housing, plus good schools and varied recreational opportunities.

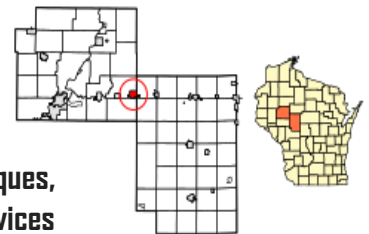

In 1871, the first building in Stanley was a warehouse constructed by the Eau Lumber Company. The newly founded village was surveyed & mapped by S. A. Carpenter. The platting was registered by L. C. Stanley and W. P. Bartlett.

L. C. Stanley was a Chippewa Falls merchant and banker, who gave his name to the community. In 1898, Stanley became a city.

The community is known for Chapman Park, with its annual rodeo, modern campgrounds, elk park, ball fields, volleyball, tennis, and basketball courts.

Just a few of the things you will want to visit when passing through:

- Veteran's Memorial at Soo Park and a Yellowstone Trail Marker
- Otter Lake Recreation Area & Park to go fishing, hunting & explore the trails
- Stanley Area Historical Society Museum
- Stanley/Boyd Pool and Fitness Center & Oriole Park Sports Complex

With Stanley's unique downtown, you will find shopping boutiques, locally owned restaurants, businesses, and professional services ready to welcome residents and visitors.
