Super, natural, inspiration! Mandalas, paintings, and mixed media art inspired by nature, intuition, and soul. My paintings are created with as much freedom from ego as possible, allowing the color, image, shape to come through authentically and intuitively. The images express my love of nature, and inspiration comes from my meditation and contemplative practice. Each original mandala is multi-media. Shown in various Minnesota venues, my intuitive paintings are unique and compelling creative soul expressions. They are also available as fine art prints, magnets and cards.

NATURE IMMERSION PHOTOGRAPHY - WADE BRITZIUS OF WILLARD, WI - GUEST ARTIST AT THE CHRISTINE CENTER
W8303 Mann Rd, Willard, WI 54493
608-484-2250 • wbritz@tcc.coop

Capturing the Light of Presence: Photography for me, is a way to make contact with the beauty and power of the present moment. As I relax into the immediacy of a more open awareness, "ordinary" experience gives way to a sense of wholeness and mystery, and the world begins to "light up". This brings a sense of wonder, where the patterns and beauty inherent in the world can be directly felt and seen. The camera records the moment, and the computer helps clarify it. The images on display are all made on, or very close to the Christine Center property. Prints and Cards available.

kmrulka@egnace.com • www.egnace.com

The Magic Mystery of Clay! Enjoy functional pottery, sculptures, and garden art, all created with high fire stoneware and individually glazed with multiple layers to create movement and flow. Each piece is heartfelt, individually created and arises from this present moment of creativity. With more than 20 years of expressing creativity through clay, I was chosen as the lead artist for the 4' x 14' ceramic tribute wall installed at the Marshfield Library. Fusing and slumping glass is a newer endeavor. I also create commemorative plates.

HENRY EISENHAUER OF WEST BEND, WI - GUEST ARTIST AT THE CHRISTINE CENTER
W8303 Mann Rd, Willard, WI 54493
262-334-1513 • opahenry2@gmail.com
www.opahenry.com

Sculpture from the Heart! Henry creates sculptures that express the inspiration of nature, spirit, and heart. Drawing inspiration from a deep inner prompting, Henry's creations combine geometric and organic forms to create inspiring compositions. He often uses found materials sourced in an industrial setting, giving scraps new life. His techniques, informed by years of professional experience in metal work, include plasma cutting, welding, and a variety of manual and machine treatments. He often torches the surface of the sculpture to add texture and color. His many metal-work sculptures, large and small, have made the Christine Center an informal sculpture park! Original sculptures in many sizes available for purchase.

We excel in design and production of medium to large scale lawn art, using stained glass and steel. Some of our individual pieces include a nine' tall totem, created of stained glass and stainless steel. This piece is comprised of a soaring eagle, bear head with metal claws and a painted mystic bird. Our featured "Ribbon Tower" stands 6 1/2' tall and is topped with a hand-blown rondel. Our latest piece, "Kaleidoscope" is 6' tall and is a symphony of blue hues found in hand-blown rondels, Dalle, stained and clear water glass. They will provide you with the joy of color. Included with the towers are primitive bird baths, wall hangings & stained glass pieces. Blue bird & wren houses for our feathered friends. We invite you to come for free tours.
